In welcoming the conclusion of this MoU, the Director of the FIAU, Mr Kenneth Farrugia, stated that: “The MGA is a strategic partner of the FIAU in ensuring that the highest levels of AML/CFT compliance are applied across the gaming sector. The MOU will therefore further strengthen the long-standing excellent relationship and the level of collaboration between the two authorities and demonstrates our commitment and determination in increasing Malta’s effectiveness in combatting money laundering and terrorism financing.”

Mr Heathcliff Farrugia, the MGA’s Chief Executive Officer, also expressed his delight in signing such a significant MoU: “Our relationship with the FIAU has gone from strength to strength, particularly since the introduction of EU’s 4th Anti-Money Laundering Directive. Due to the nature of our roles, we are in regular contact, also conducting joint supervision on MGA-licensed entities. This MOU will thus continue to strengthen this collaboration, underpinning our resolve to ensure Malta’s gaming sector is kept free from crime, preventing money laundering and combating the funding of terrorism.”

The provisions of the MoU also provides for discussing how the FIAU and the MGA can extend further co-operation in the area of AML/CFT, including in relation to training of their officials, training of subject persons, and assessing the AML/CFT competency of key individuals within licensed entities.

The MoU has been executed by Mr Jesmond Gatt, Chairperson of the FIAU, and by Mr Heathcliff Farrugia, Chief Executive Officer of the MGA.
